

July 3, 2021 Fall River

Submarine Massachusetts Sailors admire the American Elm planted December 7, 2019 at the Fall River Heritage State Park with Battleship Massachusetts in view. The American Elm was planted with Submarine Massachusetts Sailors and Families of the Battleship Massachusetts crew. The tree is the living and growing embodiment of the Sailors from both the Battleship and the Submarine Massachusetts. EMN2(SS) Donovan, MMN1(SS) Silva, CSSN Pacanins, YNC(SS) Chatpar

July 3, 2021 Fall River

Seaman Pacanins admires the righting of his World War II counterpart, Baker 2/c Phil Dorf who worked in the galley of the mighty battleship. On the previous day. Pacanins with his fellow Submarine Sailors baked and delivered to Mr. Dorf and his family baked goods made from his World War II recipe book. Pacanins baked Vanilla Cookies, Parker House Rolls, Chocolate Cake, and Apple Pie and ate with the Battleship Massachusetts baker. These and other recipes are adopted by Submarine Massachusetts and will continue to fuel the spirits of Massachusetts Sailors - maintaining a legacy from WWII foreseeably into the 2060s.

July 3, 2021 Fall River

Petty Officer Donovan experiencing a different type of periscope - this one on Battleship Massachusetts in a 16 inch gun turret.

July 4, 2021 Boston

MMN1(SS) Silva, a native of Massachusetts, and a Nuclear Machinist Mate on the Submarine Massachusetts takes in the historic significance of the USS Constitution .